

LIVING THE iN2015 VISION

Singapore has made good progress in implementing the Intelligent Nation (iN2015) Masterplan. We have established a highly connected nation with a globally competitive infocomm industry, infocomm-savvy workforce and spearheaded the transformation of key economic sectors, government and society.

1ST

Singapore's e-Government is ranked 1st in Waseda University's "International e-Government Ranking" for five consecutive years since 2009

2ND

2nd globally for four consecutive years to date for overall networked readiness index in World Economic Forum's "Global Information Technology Report"

Recipient of UN e-Government Survey's Special Award in 2012, with Singapore ranked 2nd in e-participation

TECHNOLOGY-ENABLED SECTORS

- Healthcare: Telehealth enables medical caregivers to remotely monitor chronic disease patients at NUHS
- SMEs: iSPRINT has helped over 5,000 SMEs use infocomm solutions in their business
- SMEs: Over 3,000 enterprises to be supported in the adoption of SaaS solutions
- eGov: eCitizen portal provides first-stop access to cross-agency content and over 400 government e-services
- Mobile Government: More than 100 unique mobile services from government agencies, non-government entities such as restructured hospitals and universities, as well as apps co-created with the private sectors that utilise government data are available on mGov@SG
- Education: Eight FutureSchools have been established, focusing on creating diverse learning environments
- Finance: Launch of nationwide NFC payment, accepted at over 30,000 payment points
- Logistics and Supply Chain: e-Freight@Singapore to enhance competitiveness and increase productivity in the air cargo logistics sector through infocomm
- Hospitality, Tourism & Retail: Transformed via the Digital Concierge programme, catalysing the adoption of mobile commerce and services

PERVASIVE CONNECTIVITY

-  More than 95% of homes and businesses can enjoy ultra-fast connectivity with the Next Generation Nationwide Broadband Network
- All newly built homes will be fibre-ready
- Free Wi-Fi via Wireless@SG; with access speed of up to 2Mbps
-  In-building mobile coverage to be enhanced to more than 85%
- Personal Data Protection Act introduced to strengthen Singapore's position as a trusted hub for data management and data processing activities
-  86% of resident households in Singapore have access to a computer
-  85% of households have access to broadband
-  97% of households with school-going children own a computer

COMPETITIVE INDUSTRY

- Infocomm industry revenue reached S$102 billion in 2012, an increase of 23% year-on-year
- Infocomm exports grew 33% year-on-year to reach S$78 billion

HIGHLY-SKILLED ICT WORKFORCE

- 144,300 employed infocomm manpower (2012)
- Deepening skills for high-end, high-value jobs with over 13,000 professionals benefiting from CITREP Expanded, which endorses over 400 certifications and training programmes, offered by 70 course providers